

X1 TECHNOLOGIES APPOINTS JOHN PATZAKIS AS PRESIDENT OF EDISCOVERY

PASADENA, CALIF. — JANUARY 27, 2011 — X1 Technologies, Inc., an innovator in email, desktop, and eDiscovery search solutions, announced today that John Patzakis has been appointed President of eDiscovery. John brings an extensive background and expertise in eDiscovery and corporate compliance, combining strong knowledge of both the law and the supporting technology in those areas.

“I am pleased to welcome someone as accomplished as John to the X1 team,” said John Waller, CEO of X1 Technologies. “John’s background as a senior software executive coupled with his deep understanding of compliance and discovery law make him a perfect fit to lead our efforts in the eDiscovery market.”

As President of eDiscovery for X1, John will be responsible for leading and growing the company’s efforts in the legal vertical, including X1’s eDiscovery Search Suite. X1’s eDiscovery Search Suite gives law firms and corporate legal departments a simple, scalable solution for finding electronically stored data (ESI), whether it is for the identification and collection of ESI or culling and initial review for early case assessment. The intuitive, rich client interface allows users to search data that resides in over 500 file types and applications, including email solutions such as Microsoft Exchange and Outlook, Microsoft SharePoint, Symantec Enterprise Vault and IBM Lotus Notes and Domino.

Prior to joining X1, John served as a consultant providing strategic planning and product strategies to eDiscovery and compliance solution providers. John also spent nearly a decade at Guidance Software, Inc. (NASDAQ: GUID) where he held senior management positions, including Chief Strategy Officer, Vice Chairman, Chief Legal Officer and President and CEO. While at Guidance, John led the transition of the company from start-up to a major enterprise software firm and grew revenues from $5 million to $40 million during his tenure. Prior to joining Guidance, John spent eight years practicing law in the fields of commercial litigation and business transactions.

John holds a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Southern California and a JD from the Santa Clara University School of Law.
